

STATE OF TENNESSEE

AND

STATE OF FLORIDA

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

RECEIVED
99 JUL 21 AM 12:13
DEPT. OF SAFETY
LEGAL OFFICE

The States of Tennessee and Florida hereby extend reciprocal handgun carry permit privileges to the citizens of each state. This reciprocal agreement only applies to the carrying of "handguns" by valid permit holders, and not any other types of weapons. The State of Tennessee will provide twenty-four hour verification of the authenticity and status of Tennessee permits. The State of Tennessee through the Department of Safety is responsible for the issuance of all handgun carry permits for the State of Tennessee. The State of Florida through the Department of State is responsible for the issuance of all handgun carry permits for the State of Florida. It is agreed that each state will inform the other of any changes to the respective handgun carry permit statutes that may affect the eligibility of the recognition granted by each state. Each state will provide the other with copies of current law regarding concealed weapons and handgun carry permits.

IT IS THEREFORE AGREED, citizens of the State of Tennessee and the State of Florida must obey the respective statutory requirements concerning handgun carry permits.

THIS, THE 1ST DAY OF JULY, 1999.

Mike C. Greene, Commissioner
Department of Safety
State of Tennessee

John Russi, Director
Department of State
State of Florida
